

Washington Post

Tuesday - 14 Oct 1958

$2 Million Contract Let For Foundations at CIA

A $2,289,000 contract for third and largest contract construction of the foundation awarded so far in the construction of the $46 million for the new Central Intelligence Agency headquarters CIA headquarters, GSA said. building at Langley, Va., has been let to Roscoe Engineering Corp.-Ajax Construction Co., Inc., and Associates, General Services Administration announced yesterday.

The firm's bid was the lowest of eight opened by GSA on Sept. 9. The award is the work is to be completed in about eight months. GSA expects to invite bids in six months for completion of the 8-story superstructure in the summer of 1961.

25 YEAR RE-REVIEW